CHORUS

The Chorus section consists of two staves of drum notation. The first staff begins with a double bar line and a key signature of one flat. It features a rhythmic pattern of eighth notes with asterisks above them, followed by two measures of rests indicated by a double bar line and a slash. The second staff continues the pattern with eighth notes and asterisks, followed by another two-measure rest.

BRIDGE

The Bridge section consists of two staves of drum notation. The first staff starts with eighth notes and asterisks, followed by a two-measure rest, then a slash, and finally eighth notes with asterisks. The second staff continues with eighth notes and asterisks, followed by a two-measure rest, then a series of sixteenth notes, and ends with a two-measure rest.

BREAK

OUTRO

The Outro section consists of two staves of drum notation. The first staff begins with a double bar line and a key signature of one flat. It features eighth notes with asterisks, followed by two measures of rests indicated by a double bar line and a slash. The second staff continues with eighth notes and asterisks, followed by another two-measure rest.

A musical staff for a drum solo. The staff begins with a double bar line and a key signature of one flat. The notation consists of a series of eighth notes, many of which are beamed together in groups of four or six. Above the notes, there are asterisks indicating specific drum sounds. The piece concludes with a final note and a double bar line, with the word "Fine" written below the staff.
